

For Immediate Release

Jenison, MI --Allen Springs Villas is proud to announce its Award of Excellence for the Best Community 2008. This award was given by the Home & Building Association of Greater Grand Rapids in conjunction with the Sales & Marketing Council of Western Michigan. Allen Springs is a "Community Built on Purpose" which means it is a community designed to offer its residents the tools they need to pursue their individual interests and realize their unique purpose. With a European flair and old world charm, the stand-alone villas have flexible floor plans, custom interior options and a la carte concierge services tailored for the individual. In addition, residents will be able to gather at the community pool and enjoy the Lodge at Allen Springs which includes a theater, library and exercise room. "We wanted a community that would provide each person the freedom to follow their dreams and realize their purpose no matter where they are in their own life's journey." explains Ross Luurtsema, a partner in Allen Springs Villas.

Allen Springs also received the Award of Excellence for the Best Kitchen 2008. Allen Springs Villas partner, Chuck Schipper, points to the kitchen's customized cabinets with seeded glass, unique lighting fixtures, granite countertops, and inviting island as just some of its distinctive features. "We have kept quality our first priority in the Villas, using exceptional materials and design, envisioning everything the homeowner will need to enjoy the space." said Schipper.
